Dear Bob,

Regarding the Lawrence information sent last February, I have some adds.

See A. added A-1: N.W.L.'s "Lawrence Family Record". (File w/R.J.L.'s mat.)

See B. In looseleaf bk.:

a. New green page

b. Two typed lists. All pages have a number, except pages you already have.

c. I'm sending you more pages, and these pages are checked off on the loose list of pages.

d. I've made Tab Dividers in place of yellow tab for

John C.^{3} Lawrence

John H.^{4} Lawrence

Frank D.^{5} Lawrence

Warren^{4} Lawrence

John C.^{5}

Alice^{4} (Lawrence/Galespie) m. Edw.G.Nichols

(The 1st Alice Lawrence d.1847 & noted on headstone.)

Alice is an enigma. My thoughts are that John C.^{3} Lawrence's Will or intestate probate might spell out Alice as "Ward" or "Adopted".

I am so glad that you were found. Our Lawrence Genealogy is so much further along with the addition of Phoebe Sherman^{3}Lawrence Jackson and Porter Jewett^{3} Lawrence.

I'm sending Jane the looseleaf on John C.^{3} Lawrence, you have a copy and I have the same material.

Also, in reading the 3½ month diary by John A. Jackson I found thr name of "Uncle Luman" saw "Ally" and that was Luman Norton Lawrence & wife. I hope you don't mind that I copied this diary.and am sending copy to Jane Schrandt.

Now, I have to try and put Bob Jackson's family in order.

Have a good time looking at all the data which Ben and I collected on field trips to Michigan.

Affectionately

Wisconsin cousin,

Ruth

Bob,

This is a copy of your e-mail sent to Ina, b.c.c. to me. Ina knew Ben & I had had trouble with losing your e-mails. Apparently this one never went to Jane Schrandt.

The arrows point to a Mich contact from whom you have received family information on Luman Norton Lawrence. Is your Mich. contact Jane?

I hope the Michigan person, if not Jane, is very pleased with all the information we all have contributed and thankful for your input.

Take care now while I get back to your own Jackson genealogy which has been hanging fire.

Also, I want to try to get information on the Mass. DAR application and the Conn. one. Your knowledge of Brookings, SD, was a SPECIAL find.

Ms. Metras:

Thank you so much for your quick response to my note. So far I have not turned up anything regarding your Martin's that you do not have already. I am continuing my efforts on your behalf as I continue to explore my own searches.

I have developed the Sherman genealogy up to the marriage of Mary Sherman and John Stanton Sr. From that point I am using the records secured by my father and passed along to me. I'm quite certain that my direct line Sherman's extend back to the 13th century with the family De Melton. It would be interesting to know how our data agrees. Perhaps we can exchange some of it if you so desire.

The family of John Lawrence II and Susannah Stanton matches the data I have with several minor changes. The tenth child's name is Luman Norton Lawrence. I have received information on his family record from a contact in Michigan. Since Phoebe Lawrence was my great, great grandmother who married Asahel Hyde Jackson, and Porter Jewett Lawrence was my great, great grandfather who married a Martha Baldwin, I have a "double dose" of Lawrences there. Phoebe Sherman Lawrence died on February 5, 1899, at the home of her daughter, Phoebe and Will Searles in Fairmont, Nebraska. I have her death entered in a diary of my great grandfather, John A. Jackson. He indicates numerous trips of Hannah, Minerva and others to his home in Winnebago, Illinois and also speaks about trips to Madison, Wi. and to Michigan but never mentions who he is visiting. I don't know if they were Lawrences, Stantons or Shermans. I do have the names of the husbands and wives of each child of John and Susannah but full development of the line for only Phoebe, Russell J., Porter and Luman.

With regard to John Stanton Sr., I have the names of husbands and wives (11 children) but detailed information on Lodowick and Susannah only. Anything you might have there would be interesting. And a huge thanks for the inclusion of your "Presidents cousins."

I am so appreciative of all you have sent already and hesitate to create additional work for you. You have already been too kind to respond so quickly to my note. I too am a novice with the computer when it comes to searching information- doing 3-4 families at one time adds to my confusion since the number of Johns, Marys, Elizabeths, Williams, and Thomas's is astronomical!

In any case, I hope we can stay in touch and that our labors, past and present, will be useful to each other. You asked about my city. I moved here to Henderson, Nevada (adjacent to Las Vegas) in 1993 after retiring. I enjoy the "warmth" the desert and the continually sunny skies without the cold, humid or damp weather in the midwest. I have children in San Jose, New Orleans and Denver and former step children in Wisconsin and Minnesota. I look forward to further communication with you. Thank you very much!

Dear Maude and others,

My word, I am astounded by the information you sent of the "Family Birth Record, those xeroxed pages are a stupendous find for me. They confirm what I have only surmised so far. And, I am truly grateful for the up-date on the Lawrence family, as well as the burial records all so vital to my research.

I am enclosing xerox copies of information on Martin, Majesta Moore, Ruth P. (Stanton) Wallace, Balinda (Stanton) Ferguson and STANTON family, as well as a chart on what I had of the Lawrence line as it tied into the Martin line. Do not be dismayed at differences in dates, etc. when you start cross-referencing with your own data. There is such a possibility for error in transcribing or for county records to be wrong. I have had to correct state records in Ohio for my husband's birth certificate where his name was incorrect, and to correct my father's birth certificate where his name was incorrect.

All the data I gather will have to be proofed through various sources. What I have now is a survey, with here and there documents to back up the data. One of the problems I encounter in the old records is that they are handwritten, and can be misinterpreted. A good example is "Divine" corrected by you to Devere, and I am very pleased to have this correction.

Also, cemetary tombstones may often be incorrect. If the stonemason struck the wrong date the family let it stay that way. From a cemetary reference found in the DAR library, there is a John Martin, age 65, buried in Mt. Vernon Cemetary, Romeo, Mich. But our John was 55 when he died. It is quite possible for a "5" to look like a "6" especially if the stone is weathered. Would like to have the address for both of the cemetaries you mentioned. You sent new burial information.

In analyzing the Family Record pages you sent, it appears to me that the information was entered by only one person as the writing is the same. Do your parents papers give any indication as to who might have written the data? Do you have marriage and death pages that are just as old? Are the pages loose or from a Bible?

I am enclosing a picture Of Elizabeth Martin. Since my grandmother Dierkes was brought up by Elizabeth it is she who identified her as Elizabeth Sherman Martin, and we thought her maiden name was Sherman, but not so. You show she died in 1904 and differs from the record I found in Macomb County in Vol. B, p.82, Record # 256: Elizabeth Martin died July 11, 1894, age 85 yrs, 6 mos. 11 days, died Romeo, parents were William Stenten, and Sophina Stenten. The record is handwritten so the clerk who typed the certificate I bought, wrote Stenten instead of Stanton. If you work back from the figues to this person's birthdate it comes out Jan. 1 1809. But, I'm still interested in the 1904 date.

I could not find a record of death of Sophina Lawrence in Macomb County and I searched indexes through 1919. It is possible she died in a different county, but was buried in Macomb County. It was Roger that told me he thought she died in Caseville. Do you possibly have a death certificate?

Regarding a possible 1st marriage for Frank Lawrence, a separate page on that subject is enclosed. It is a good example of how I do some of this research.

One of the things that had always puzzled me was why, if John and Elizabeth Martin, had a daughter living in Hillsdale County, Mich., did they go to Oxford, Mich. to settle in 1855? My grandmother Sarah (Martin) Dierkes stated she was born in Oxford. Well, I did find the answer. I have enclosed some pertinent pages from a 44 page manuscript done by Edith (Stanton) Shackelton about 1962. She shows the children of John and Mary (Sherman) Stanton. William Stanton is one of theee children. Several of William's brothers and sisters went to Michigan when land was opening up. Edith's manuscript shows this information. Sally (Stanton) Nobles lived in Oxford, some children lived in Macomb County, Washington Township; Lodowick Stanton lived Bloomfield, Mich.

Edith Shackelton had an earlier manuscript done about 1918; the 1962 manuscript deletes some earlier entrys and adds a great deal more. She apparently traveled quite a bit interviewing descendents, and surveying county records and cemetaries. She does not cover all the children of John and Mary Stanton, and for William Stanton she knows of only one child, Balinda. So you can see just how enormously significant your papers are. I had in census and pension surveys discovered a possible 7 and you show 9!

But, what is even more exciting is that some of your data for Susannah Lawrence comes very close to that of Susannah Stanton who married John Lawrence. I found a record for their marriage in a microfilm of Vermont vital records. They were married in Pownal, Bennington County, Vermont. This is where all the Stanton children of John and Mary were born.

John C. Lawrence bought land in 1834 in Section 17; his father John Lawrence came from Onondaga County, N.Y. and also purchased land in Section 17. It is possible that the early deed records for Macomb County may indicate that John C. Lawrence or his father bought their land while still living in New York, and sometimes the record shows the town. Hopefully the town will turn out to be Spafford or Borodino, N. Y.

Some of my research has turned up the following: William Stanton was living in New Lisbon, Otsego County in 1810 Census; Balinda was born Oct. 16, 1810. William was Spafford, N. Y. in the 1820 Census, and in 1830 Census there are enough persons shown in household to cover including the John and Elizabeth Martin and John Ephraim Martin as well as the other Stantons not yet married. Balinda Stanton was married in 1828 in Spafford New York. Majesta Martin in born in Warsaw, Genesee County (then) in 1832, and Sophina Martin was born in Orangeville, Genesee County (then) in 1833. (Genesee split later on and the aforesaid towns on non in Wyoming County, N.Y. By 1840 the Martin and Stanton families are in Mayville, Chautauqua County, N.Y. Wm. & Sophina remain there until their deaths, while the Martin family moves in 1855 to Michigan.

I have had more success tracing later descendents of John and Elizabeth Martin and will have more of a struggle finding their ancestors, as my trip to Syracuse in November was not too productive on Martin line, but extraordinary on Stanton line.

I have sent xerox copies (with some explanations here and there) of all the letters found at a cousin's home in Coldwater, Mich., and a copy of my transcription so that you will be able to decifer the not too clear xerox of handwritten letter. There are some copies of book pages. I copied Stanton information done by Grove Stanton, who fortunately includes his reference sources, and sent these to you. Also sent some work done by Wm. G. Smith on Wm Stanton and Balinda Ferguson. The greatest difference in his work and your Stanton pages is that he shows Wm. Stanton married to Sophia Aspinwall, and you show Sophina Palmer. That puzzle will have to be straighened out. Take your time wading through all this information. Much will have to be double checked as quite a number of dates don't cross-reference from one set of documents to another.

I have't heard from Janet yet with more Lawrence information, but hopefully she will be able to send the information after the holiday season.

Sorry I saddled you with a child you didn't have, but I misunderstood something Roger said.

When John Martin dies, his heirs petition Dec. 31, 1867 for appointment of administration. The heirs were listed as follows:

Elizabeth Martin, widow of deceased, resides City of Saginaw

Wealth J. Preston of City of Saginaw (Franklin Preston, her husband) asks to be administrator

Sophina Lawrence of MtVernon, Macomb County

Magesta Moore of Butler, Branch County

Ephraim Martin of City of Saginaw

In Jan. of 1868 some property is transferred by:

Elizabeth Martin, widow of deceased
Majesta Moore of Butler, Branch County
Sophina Lawrence, Washington, Macomb County
Weltha Preston of Saginaw of Saginaw County heirs at law of deceased of the first part and

John E. Martin of Saginaw of Saginaw County, Mich, heir at law of John Martin, deceased of the second part.

Note: We had a great deal of confusion in our family since we thoughtthat John had a brother Ephraim and it was not until the discovery of this probate and deed transfer that we found out that John and Ephraim were one and the same person. Through his lifetime he was sometimes John E. Martin on land transactions, Ephraim in the census records, and J. E. Martin when he borrows money from his father-in-law, and his death certificate is for J. E. Martin with his father as John Martin and mother as Elizabeth Stanton.

It was from these two listings that I have been able to trace most of the descendents and to find out so much about the Stantons.

Your information on Stanton and Martin families is something I am so happy to have. My husband says, "Happiness for you is finding a dead or living relative." You have given me both.

May you all have a very Merry Christmas and a Happy, Happy New Year.

A grateful cousin,

PS I left something out. I don't find the Lawrence genealogy listed in catalogues of names in print that I have. will have to check Library of Congress name index in genealogy & history department

Sorry for poor xerox copies. Orig. letter a carbon copy on very thin paper.

RESEARCH ON THE LAWRENCE FAMILY

When I do surveys in county vital statistics, census records, deeds or probate, I either list all the persons with the same surname or pick out those whose names match ones I believe to be relatives. Sometimes I have to go back and re-do the work picking up names not known before.

Since I now believe that Susannah Lawrence was born a Stanton, I'll have to go back and redo a census survey of all Lawrence persons in Onondaga County, N.Y, and Macomb County, Mich, and then go to Vermont and do the same.

Regarding a possible 1st marriage of Frank D. Lawrence. My survey of Macomb County Vital Statistics disclosed the following:

Marriage

Record No. 3323, July 10, 1883/4 (Handwritten record), page 222 or 3

Frank D. Lawrence of Detroit, age 20, b. Mich.

Eva Nellie Gaadison of Rochester, Macomb Co., age 17, b. Mich.

Married by A. Dunlap, pastor M.E. Church of Mt. Vernon witnesses Addie S. Fleming of Missouri

Sue Dunlap of Mt. Vernon

Deaths

Nettie Lawrence, died Jan. 28, 1884, Romeo, Mich. age 22, of puerperal fever.
Father: William West
Vol.A or Mother: Sophia West
B. p.231 (Nettie is married but husband is not listed.)

No other Frank lived in Romeo MI in 1884. His mother not in burial plot where Nettie is buried. Frank & Nettie marriage cert. not in Macomb County, MI.

Frank Lawrence, died Feb. 10, 1884, Romeo, Mich. of dibility, age 20 days
Father: Frank Lawrence of Romeo
Mother: Nettie Lawrence of Romeo

(note: none of Frank D. & Theodosia's sons are named Frank)

Marriage

No. 4127, Nov. 21, 1885, p. 276

Frank D. Lawrence, age 24, b. Mich., painter (forgot to copy residence)
Theodosia Armstrong, age 21, b. Mich. - (" ")
Married by H. N. Shier, Minister

Witnesses: Mrs. H. A. Shier of Romeo
Mrs. Lawrence of Romeo

No. 4245, Apr. 8, 1886, p. 284

John C. Lawrence, age 21, agricultural dealer (forgot to copy residence)
Louisa E. Avery (" " ")
Married by W. A. Rupert, Minister

Witnesses: Elisha Cawkins of Romeo
Eliza Cawkins of Romeo

(Note by RAH, This is 1st marriage of son of Warren & Phoebe (Gulick) Lawrence)

Note: The Pontiac Lawrence cousins never heard of a prior marriage for Frank D. Lawrence. Recheck marriage to Theodosia (may show he was married before.)
Check newspaper Mt. Clemens Courier for date of 1st marriage
(Mt.Clemens Library in Macomb County has papers. May show those who attended wedding celebration or small news article)

check the cemetary records in Romeo and see who purchased grave plot, if Nettie/Nellie and little Frank buried there.

Locate marriage records in churches for Mt. Vernon and Romeo, possibly Methodist Episcopal Church (Records may have been transferred to centralized church area. Where?) (Records may show more information that in county record.)

Locate Gaadison and West names in 1880 Census, if not in index, check Romeo Washington, Township for Nettie/Nellie Gasdison or West and her parents.

Check Detroit City Directory to see if Frank D. Lawrence there in 1883 or 1884. (His Grandmother Elizabeth Martin is living with Sarah Ann (Martin) Dierkes at that time, and Frank could be visiting them.)

Maybe the writing is not "Detroit" but Disco, which is in Macomb County

See if the west family is listed in Macomb County History books, as it may show daughter was married to Frank Lawrence and who his parents were.

See if Janet Lawrence, dau. of Forrest would work on the Lawrence line.

Record what found for each source checked.

Show in final manuscript the entry is doubtful, if can't find proof.

. . . carried on the work of tilling the soil, neglecting no effort that would make his business a profitable one in harmony with honorable and straightforward methods. At length he removed from the farm to Romeo, where he lived retired until his death, which occurred in 1893. His wife had passed away in 1890. Their son Henry, nine years older than Warren, died of cancer of the face in 1876 and their daughter, Alice, died at the age of two years.

Warren Lawrence, their only living child, was reared upon the home farm in Washington township and his preliminary education, acquired in the common schools, was supplemented by study in the Oxford high school. He remained with his father through the period of his boyhood and youth, working in the fields when not engaged with the duties of the schoolroom. Following the attainment of his majority he was married in Washington township, on the 7th of June, 1862, to Miss Phoebe A. Gulick, whose birth occurred in Washington township, while her father, William Gulick, was a native of New Jersey. The young couple began their domestic life upon the old homestead farm and Mr. Lawrence continued its cultivation for twenty years, on the expiration of which period they left the farm and removed to Romeo in 1885. Here Mr. Lawrence began dealing in agricultural implements, continuing in that business for ten years. He also bought a lot and built a residence in 1885, erecting a neat and comfortable house which he still occupies. Since selling his store in Romeo he has spent the summer months in traveling for a harvester company, the Milwaukee. He bought and still owns eighty acres of land in Washington township and has another farm of eighty acres in Oakland township, both being well improved properties, which return him a good income, and thus he realizes a good profit upon his investment.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence have one son, John C. Lawrence, who has been twice married, and has four children: Helen and Omer, born of the first marriage; and Warren and George, born of the second marriage. He is now a resident of Philadelphia, being employed by the American Road Machine Company of Kennett Square, Pennsylvania.

Politically Mr. Lawrence is a republican where national issues are involved and his first presidential ballot was cast for Abraham Lincoln. He has never desired office for himself, as his business affairs have claimed his time and energies. He belongs to the Knights of Pythias fraternity of Romeo, has filled all of its chairs and is now serving as past chancellor of the lodge. His life history is another illustration of the fact that success comes as the legitimate result of well-applied energy, unflagging determination and perseverance in a course of action when once decided upon. She smiles not upon the idler or dreamer, and only the man who has justly won her favor is crowned with her blessings. In tracing the history of Mr. Lawrence it is plainly seen that the prosperity which he enjoys has been won by the commendable qualities above mentioned, together with other traits of character which have also won for him the high esteem of those who know him.

DAVID F. JONES.

David F. Jones, who is one of the substantial agriculturists of the township of Macomb, where he owns a good farm of about one hundred acres, maintains his residence in Meade. He was born near the old homestead property in Macomb township, May 7, 1852. His father was James Jones and he is a brother of Charles H. and Robert N. Jones, whose histories are given elsewhere in this volume. His youth was spent like that of the other members of the family—in work upon the home farm and in attendance at the district school. There he learned the best methods of plowing and planting and of caring for the crops in the autumn. He remained with his father on the old homestead and afterward carried on the farm for him and later received a deed from his mother to the home place. In his work he kept in touch with the ideas of modern progress along agricultural lines. He built a good house and barn on the old home farm and continued the work of repair and improvement and placed his fields under a high state of cultivation. There he continued to reside until 1902, when he retired from the farm and located in Meade, where he owns a good residence. He still looks after the farm property, however, and his careful supervision is indicated by the well-kept appearance of the place.

David F. Jones was married in Macomb county, May 28, 1874, to Miss Ella Furton, a daughter of John Furton, whose sketch is given on another page of this work. Mrs. Jones is a native daughter of Macomb county and by her marriage she has become the mother of four children: Junia, the wife of ly opposed to misrule in municipal affairs. He untiringly advocated primary reform at the convention held in Richmond, Macomb county, in June, 1904, and was chairman of the committee on credentials there. He has always been a stanch advocate of the leading principles of his party, and in the spring of 1903 he was nominated on the republican ticket for the office of supervisor. He ran ahead of his ticket, but was defeated by a small majority. During the congressional session of 1904-5 he spent a portion of the time in Washington, D. C., being connected with the postoffice department, and later he made a trip through the New England states, returning thence to Mount Clemens. He finds his chief source of recreation in water sports, being particularly fond of boating and sailing. He is popular with people of his own age in Mount Clemens, while the older men, recognizing his ability, predict for him a successful future.

FRED W. SCHMIDT.

Fred W. Schmidt, whose farm shows all the evidence of painstaking care on the part of the owner and whose property comprises a tract of one hundred and twenty acres on Section 8, Clinton township, was born upon this place August 13, 1860. His father, Frederick G. Schmidt, was a native of Germany, born in 1827, and the days of his boyhood and youth were passed in that country. He was married there to Miss Caroline Mulenhauer, also a native of the fatherland, and in 1853 they emigrated to the new world, making their way at once to Macomb county, Michigan, where they secured a tract of raw land, which he cleared and developed, transforming it into a fine farm. He afterward built a good brick residence, which supplemented his pioneer home, and also substantial and commodious barns and other outbuildings. He planted an orchard, fenced the place and continued the work of improvement along progressive lines until an excellent farming property was a visible evidence of his life of industry and enterprise. After rearing his family on the old home place he sold out and moved to Mount Clemens, where he lived a retired life for thirteen years. He then disposed of his property in the county seat and took up his abode in Detroit, where he now makes his home, resting in the enjoyment of the fruits of his former toil.

Fred W. Schmidt was one of a family of four sons and two daughters and with the exception of one son all are yet living. His boyhood days were spent upon the old homestead farm which he helped to clear and cultivate and after arriving at mature years he purchased the land of his father and has continued the work of further development and improvement until he now has one of the excellent farm properties in Clinton township. There are good buildings and everything about the place is neat and thrifty in appearance and as the years go by he harvests good crops, for he follows progressive and practical methods in caring for his fields so that an excellent return is secured for his labor.

In May, 1890, Mr. Schmidt was united in marriage in Macomb county to Miss Mary Hammann, a native of the county and a daughter of William Hammann, who was born in Germany. Seven children grace this marriage: Paul F., Carrie, Edna, Anna, Walter, Harold and Gladys. They also lost one son, who died at the age of thirteen months. The parents were reared in the German Lutheran church and now hold membership therein. Mr. Schmidt votes with the democratic party, but has never sought or desired office, giving his attention to general agricultural pursuits, and he is to-day classed with the honest yeomen of Macomb county.

WARREN LAWRENCE.

Warren Lawrence has for years been an active business man and successful farmer of Washington township. He has always lived in Macomb county, having first opened his eyes to the light of day on the old Lawrence farm July 5, 1842. His father, John C. Lawrence, was born in Vermont in 1814 and when a child accompanied his parents on their removal to New York, being reared in Onondaga county. Subsequently he was married there to Betsy Glaspie, a native of the Empire state, and in 1835 he removed westward to Michigan, entering from the government a tract of land on the boundary line between Oakland and Macomb counties. This was covered with timber, but he at once cleared away the trees for a log house, built fences and began the cultivation of the soil so that in due course of time rich harvests were gathered. His father, John Lawrence, joined him but a few years later and also bought land in Macomb county, one and a half miles away. They traded farms later, their removal being made in 1851. John C. Lawrence was a thrifty and successful agriculturist and for many

By researching Macomb and Oakland Court House records, I was able to trace the above persons and wrote to Maude E. Stalcup who still lived at 795 Menomine Rd. Pontiac. She gave me ancestral information, and we exchanged current family records. She had an earlier written record on Sophina (nee Martin) Lawrence's parents and Sophina's grandparents William and Sophina (Palmer) Stanton. Both the Palmer and Stanton names now traced back to 1600's.

"Past and Present of Macomb County, Michigan" by Robert F. Eldridge, pub.1905. LAWRENCE

Regarding: Warren Lawrence[4], son of: John C.[3], John [2,1] Lawrence of Bennington, VT

ly opposed to misrule in municipal affairs. He untiringly advocated primary reform at the convention held in Richmond, Macomb county, in June, 1904, and was chairman of the committee on credentials there. He has always been a stanch advocate of the leading principles of his party, and in the spring of 1903 he was nominated on the republican ticket for the office of supervisor. He ran ahead of his ticket, but was defeated by a small majority. During the congressional session of 1904-5 he spent a portion of the time in Washington, D. C., being connected with the postoffice department, and later he made a trip through the New England states, returning thence to Mount Clemens. He finds his chief source of recreation in water sports, being particularly fond of boating and sailing. He is popular with people of his own age in Mount Clemens, while the older men, recognizing his ability, predict for him a successful future.

FRED W. SCHMIDT.

Fred W. Schmidt, whose farm shows all the evidence of painstaking care on the part of the owner and whose property comprises a tract of one hundred and twenty acres on Section 8, Clinton township, was born upon this place August 13, 1860. His father, Frederick G. Schmidt, was a native of Germany, born in 1827, and the days of his boyhood and youth were passed in that country. He was married there to Miss Caroline Mulenhauer, also a native of the fatherland, and in 1853 they emigrated to the new world, making their way at once to Macomb county, Michigan, where they secured a tract of raw land, which he cleared and developed, transforming it into a fine farm. He afterward built a good brick residence, which supplemented his pioneer home, and also substantial and commodious barns and other outbuildings. He planted an orchard, fenced the place and continued the work of improvement along progressive lines until an excellent farming property was a visible evidence of his life of industry and enterprise. After rearing his family on the old home place he sold out and moved to Mount Clemens, where he lived a retired life for thirteen years. He then disposed of his property in the county seat and took up his abode in Detroit, where he now makes his home, resting in the enjoyment of the fruits of his former toil.

Fred W. Schmidt was one of a family of four sons and two daughters and with the exception of one son all are yet living. His boyhood days were spent upon the old homestead farm which he helped to clear and cultivate and after arriving at mature years he purchased the land of his father and has continued the work of further development and improvement until he now has one of the excellent farm properties in Clinton township. There are good buildings and everything about the place is neat and thrifty in appearance and as the years go by he harvests good crops, for he follows progressive and practical methods in caring for his fields so that an excellent return is secured for his labor.

In May, 1890, Mr. Schmidt was united in marriage in Macomb county to Miss Mary Hammann, a native of the county and a daughter of William Hammann, who was born in Germany. Seven children grace this marriage: Paul F., Carrie, Edna, Anna, Walter, Harold and Gladys. They also lost one son, who died at the age of thirteen months. The parents were reared in the German Lutheran church and now hold membership therein. Mr. Schmidt votes with the democratic party, but has never sought or desired office, giving his attention to general agricultural pursuits, and he is to-day classed with the honest yeomen of Macomb county.

WARREN LAWRENCE.

Warren Lawrence has for years been an active business man and successful farmer of Washington township. He has always lived in Macomb county, having first opened his eyes to the light of day on the old Lawrence farm July 5, 1842. His father, John C. Lawrence, was born in Vermont in 1814 and when a child accompanied his parents on their removal to New York, being reared in Onondaga county. Subsequently he was married there to Betsy Glaspie, a native of the Empire state, and in 1835 he removed westward to Michigan, entering from the government a tract of land on the boundary line between Oakland and Macomb counties. This was covered with timber, but he at once cleared away the trees for a log house, built fences and began the cultivation of the soil so that in due course of time rich harvests were gathered. His father, John Lawrence, joined him but a few years later and also bought land in Macomb county, one and a half miles away. They traded farms later, their removal being made in 1851. John C. Lawrence was a thrifty and successful agriculturist and for many ued carried on the work of tilling the soil, neglecting no effort that would make his business a profitable one in harmony with honorable and straightforward methods. At length he removed from the farm to Romeo, where he lived retired until his death, which occurred in 1895. His wife had passed away in 1890. Their son Henry, nine years older than Warren, died of cancer of the face in 1876 and their daughter, Alice, died at the age of two years.

Warren Lawrence, their only living child, was reared upon the home farm in Washington township and his preliminary education, acquired in the common schools, was supplemented by study in the Oxford high school. He remained with his father through the period of his boyhood and youth, working in the fields when not engaged with the duties of the schoolroom. Following the attainment of his majority he was married in Washington township, on the 7th of June, 1862, to Miss Phoebe A. Gulick, whose birth occurred in Washington township, while her father, William Gulick, was a native of New Jersey. The young couple began their domestic life upon the old homestead farm and Mr. Lawrence continued its cultivation for twenty years, on the expiration of which period they left the farm and removed to Romeo in 1885. Here Mr. Lawrence began dealing in agricultural implements, continuing in that business for ten years. He also bought a lot and built a residence in 1885, erecting a neat and comfortable house which he still occupies. Since selling his store in Romeo he has spent the summer months in traveling for a harvester company, the Milwaukee. He bought and still owns eighty acres of land in Washington township and has another farm of eighty acres in Oakland township, both being well improved properties, which return him a good income, and thus he realizes a good profit upon his investment.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence have one son, John C. Lawrence, who has been twice married, and has four children: Helen and Omer, born of the first marriage; and Warren and George, born of the second marriage. He is now a resident of Philadelphia, being employed by the American Road Machine Company of Kennett Square, Pennsylvania.

Politically Mr. Lawrence is a republican where national issues are involved and his first presidential ballot was cast for Abraham Lincoln. He has never desired office for himself, as his business affairs have claimed his time and energies. He belongs to the Knights of Pythias fraternity of Romeo, has filled all of its chairs and is now serving as past chancellor of the lodge. His life history is another illustration of the fact that success comes as the legitimate result of well-applied energy, unflagging determination and perseverance in a course of action when once decided upon. She smiles not upon the idler or dreamer, and only the man who has justly won her favor is crowned with her blessings. In tracing the history of Mr. Lawrence it is plainly seen that the prosperity which he enjoys has been won by the commendable qualities above mentioned, together with other traits of character which have also won for him the high esteem of those who know him.

DAVID F. JONES.

David F. Jones, who is one of the substantial agriculturists of the township of Macomb, where he owns a good farm of about one hundred acres, maintains his residence in Meade. He was born near the old homestead property in Macomb township, May 7, 1852. His father was James Jones and he is a brother of Charles H. and Robert N. Jones, whose histories are given elsewhere in this volume. His youth was spent like that of the other members of the family—in work upon the home farm and in attendance at the district school. There he learned the best methods of plowing and planting and of caring for the crops in the autumn. He remained with his father on the old homestead and afterward carried on the farm for him and later received a deed from his mother to the home place. In his work he kept in touch with the ideas of modern progress along agricultural lines. He built a good house and barn on the old home farm and continued the work of repair and improvement and placed his fields under a high state of cultivation. There he continued to reside until 1902, when he retired from the farm and located in Meade, where he owns a good residence. He still looks after the farm property, however, and his careful supervision is indicated by the well-kept appearance of the place.

David F. Jones was married in Macomb county, May 28, 1874, to Miss Ella Furton, a daughter of John Furton, whose sketch is given on another page of this work. Mrs. Jones is a native daughter of Macomb county and by her marriage she has become the mother of four children: Junia, the wife of

Re: John Henry Lawrence (son of John C. & Betsy (Glaspie) Lawrence, and Sophina (Martin) Lawrence (daughter of John & Elizabeth (Stanton) Martin)

John and Sophina had one known child, Frank DeForest Lawrence, born July 1861. (His birth month and year per 1900 Fed. Census) (The 1910 Census for Sophina states she was the mother of two children, none living) Frank died 1901 per headstone and family records. (The 1900 Census for Sophina states mother of 1 child, 1 living.)

Frank D. Lawrences' descendents knew only of his marriage to Theodosia Armstrong, and nothing of a probably prior marriage, and most had little interest in family history, except a gds. Clarimond Lawrence who was deceased prior to this writer's research.

These descendents knew of cemetery headstones in both Mt. Vernon and Romeo Cemetery which are in Macomb County, but none had ever checked for burial or plot purchase or ownership records.

The one unusual story that Frank's descendents had was that his mother Sophia did not want to be buried beside her husband in Mt. Vernon Cemetery but desired to be buried in Romeo Cemetery in a plot with her son Frank. Sophina had purchased this plot on July 12, 1894; a 4 grave plot. NOTE: Sophina's mother Elizabeth Stanton Martin died July 11, 1894.

See P.39 + 40

One of these graves in Romeo was marked Elizabeth Martin 1809 - 1904 on headstone. Elizabeth Martin was the mother of Sophina (Martin) Lawrence. The descendents always believed that Elizabeth had died in 1904. NOTE: July 18, 1894 issue of The Romeo Observer, newspaper died Weds. last (July 11th) at home of daughter Sophina Romeo.

A letter filed herein shows the persons who are buried in Plots 12 and 13 in Mt.Vernon Cemetery, and the names of persons to whom the plots are registered. Note that Sophina's husband Henry Lawrence and a woman Nettie/Nellie Lawrence are buried in Plot 12. (A baby might be buried on mother's grave, and not recorded.)

See P.9

4.	LAWRENCE, George[6]	ca1902, PA			Livs. w/mother. Does not work. age. 17, born PA. in 192
5.	Remark: In 1900 Census, Ida Rathbun, b.May 1861, & w/parents. In 1910 Census Ida is enumerated with her parents, age 48.. On April 27th, Ida Rathbun, age 45, was with her sister Eva Lawrence, age 36 and the two boys,				(Date taken: Apr. 19th.)
6.	Warren, age 11,b.MI; George,age6, b.PA. Eva Lawrence listed as married for 1, her 1st marriage.). By 1920 she had moved from Rochester, Oakland Co., to Highland Park, MI where she owed house at 251 Grove St.
7.	Note: In Mt.Vernon Cemetery, Plot 109 where Warren and Phebe Lawrence are buried, there is another person: Lonesa Lawrence, date of death 8-26-1891. Since Louisa E. Lawrence d. Sept. 23, 1891, possibly this was their granddaughter and child of John C. & Louisa E. Lawrence.
8.	Marriage record not researched in Macomb Co. Oakland Co., Wayne Co. or Detroit, MI. Could have m. PA or not at all. Omar,s certificate of birth could be in Macomb Co., MI.
9.	Remark: Vital statistics are difficult to get into in PA. But the probate records can be researched for death & probate proceedings of John C. Lawrence. All his heirs, widow and children might be listed. By 1920 Census in Phil.PA, John had married his housekeeper Minnie M. Kyle, a wid. living with him 1910.
11.	When m.1886 the witnesses were Elizha & Elizabeth Cawkins. Married by W. A. Rupert, minister.
12.	Remarks: When John C.[3] married in 1886 his occupation was shown as agricultural dealer. By 1910 he was an agent for machinery. The 1905 sketch indicated he worked for Am. Road Machine Co., Kennet Sq, PA. That town was in Chester County, PA. By 1918 he was president of Cable Excavator Co., Inc., & manager of Good Roads Machinery Co. By 1924 the directory shows him as a machinist.

Residence Information: 1910 John C. has a rented house at 226 So. 65th St. Philadelphia, PA.
1920 He has a house free of mortgage at 6163 Columbia Ave., Phila.,PA and his father Warren age 77, a widower lives with he and his wife. The City Directory shows him there until 1924, and not in Phila. thereafter.

Remarks:
In 1900 Fed.Census, The first two children lived with their grandparents Warren & Phoebe Lawrence, in Romeo, MI. In 1910, the Fed. Census shows Omar W. Lawrence as a boarder, and he was a salesman for a machinery company. Omar was listed in City Directory as a salesman, but not located in Pa.1920 Census. Perhaps he was in WWI.

References: The "Past and Present of Macomb County, by Robert F. Eldridge, pub.1905, pp.466, 467 indicates that John C had the four above named children, two by the first marriage and two by the second marriage.

Remark: In 1900 Census, Ida Rathbun, b.May 1861, & w/parents. In 1910 Census Ida is enumerated with her parents, age 48. On April 27th, Ida Rathbun, age 45, was with her sister Eva Lawrence, age 36 and the two boys; Warren, age 11,b.MI; George,age6, b.PA. Eva Lawrence listed as married for 1x, her 1st marriage.). By 1920 she had moved from Rochester, Oakland Co., to Highland Park, MI where she owed house at 251 Grove St. (Date taken: Apr. 19th.)

6.

7. Note: In Mt.Vernon Cemetery, Plot 109 where Warren and Phebe Lawrence are buried, there is another person: Lonesa Lawrence, date of death 8-25-1891. Since Louisa E. Lawrence d. Sept. 23, 1891, possibly this was their granddaughter and child of John C.[5] & Louisa E. Lawrence.

8. Marriage record not researched in Macomb Co. Oakland Co., Wayne Co. or Detroit, MI. Could have m. PA or not at all. Omar,s certificate of birth could be in Macomb Co., MI.

9. Remark: Vital statistics are difficult to get into in PA. But the probate records can be researched for death & probate proceedings of John C. Lawrence. All his heirs, widow and children might be listed. By 1920 Census in Phil.PA, John had married his housekeeper Minnie M. Kyle, a wid. living with him 1910.

10. → * A family story from a descendant is that John C.[5] & Eva Rathbun left together and went South. I did not find them in either PA or MI census. The 1910 Census shows one son Warren b. MI and 2nd son b. PA.

11. When m.1886 the witnesses were Elizha & Elizabeth Cawkins. Married by W. A. Rupert, minister.

12. Remarks: When John C.[5] married in 1886 his occupation was shown as agricultural dealer. By 1910 he was an agent for machinery. The 1905 sketch indicated he worked for Am. Road Machine Co., Kennet Sq, PA. That town was in Chester County, PA. By 1918 he was president of Cable Excavator Co., Inc., & manager of Good Roads Machinery Co. By 1924 the directory shows him as a machinist.

Residence Information: 1910 John C. has a rented house at 226 So. 65th St. Philadelphia, PA.
1920 He has a house free of mortgage at 6163 Columbia Ave., Phila.,PA and his father Warren age 77, a widower lives with he and his wife. The City Directory shows him there until 1924, and not in Phila. thereafter.

Remarks:
In 1900 Fed.Census, The first two children lived with their grandparents Warren & Phoebe Lawrence, in Romeo, MI. In 1910, the Fed. Census shows Omar W. Lawrence as a boarder, and he was a salesman for a machinery company. Omar was listed in City Directory as a salesman, but not located in Pa.1920 Census. Perhaps he was in WWI.

References: The "Past and Present of Macomb County, by Robert F. Eldridge, pub. 1905, pp.466, 467 indicates that John C had the four above named children, two by the first marriage and two by the second marriage.

Some comments on marital status in 1910 and 1920 census. There was a certain stigma to being noted as divorced. It was easier to say wife or widowed, especially if neighbors took up census.

Ages in any census are suspect and where families are searched for all available census years, a better decision can be made. Even county Vital Records* are not reliable. Finding the earliest census that a person's name appears helps make the best or most probable decision.

*Try to secure County records. Old writing can be misread if your writing later certificate.

Dear Ruth,

It was so nice to talk to you once again! I have shared bits of our conversation with Dad and he enjoys discussing his memories but his hearing is very poor and it seems as if he tires of straining to hear over the phone. He does remember when his grandparents lived on Hendrie (he thinks this was the correct spelling) in a four family flat.

Here I have enclosed:

1) Ethel's death certificate (with Alice Lawrence as her mother's maiden name) 3 p.

2) Glaspie House 5 pp 4

3) Lawrence Warren House (Gr History Bk 3 p. 25

3) and 248 Santa Maria - home of Vern Hosner (later) former home of Sup't & MARTON LAWRENCE CAD (SOC p. 25

I will continue to look for some answers and will stay in touch! Our son will be home from Washington, DC next week and will have a 3-week vacation before returning to Dartmouth for spring quarter. We plan a week's trip to Puerto Rico with him from March 13-20th. Looking forward to some sunshine & warm weather.

Take care -

Sincerely,
Penny

FOLLOW-UP RESEARCH TO: Note the 1850 Census has an Alice Galespie age 6/12 living with John C. Lawrence family)

Called telephone information for number of Lawrence Hosner, Detroit Metropolitan area.

Lawrence Hosner, (810/752-2824) listed in Romeo, Mich. area. Livs.: 67460 Van Dyke, Apt. 3, Georgian Oaks Washington Twnp., MI, 48095

- On Saturday, Mar. 12, 1994 I called him. He is 87 years old, and was born Oct. 7, 1906.
- The Nichols and Hosner families moved back to Romeo in the 1930's and those who are deceased are all buried Romeo Cemetery where he expects to be buried.
- Lawrence did not know what his grandmother Alice Nichols' maiden name was. When I spoke of the name of Glaspie he remembered that when he was about 10 years old his family went to Oxford, MI, for Glaspie family reunion.
- Lawrence was not sure how to spell Glaspie, or whether it was Galespie or Glaspie.
- He gave me the information that he had married June 13, 1941, in Bowling Green, Ohio. Had eloped with Elaine Smith, who is deceased and buried Romeo Cemetary.
- He said he had a daughter, Penny (Hosner) Malcoun who lived Barrington, Ill., outside of Chicago. She is married to Raymond Malcoun.

Called telephone information for number of Raymond Malcoun. in Barrington, Ill.

* Penny (Hosner) Malcoun, (708/381-2970). Livs. 1493 Lake Shore Ct., Barrington, IL 60017

- On Sunday, Mar. 13, 1994 I called her. Her father had called her immediately after we had finished our conversation on Saturday and she was disappointed that he had not asked for my address and telephone number, not knowing I planned to try to find her, too.
- Penny did not know whether her gt.gd.mother Alice Nichols was a Galespie Lawrence, but expressed great interest in family history. She plans to be in Romeo in May and will try to do some research there. Her master's degree is in Library Science and she is working on passing Illinois requirements for school teacher . Her Mich. certificate is not accepted by Illinois. Her husband is a computer specialist and they have - home computer.
- I explained to her that her ancestry for her gt.gd.mother Alice(Galespie/Lawrence) Nichols is not clear without further proof.
- She said that a woman Margaret Porter, of CA corresponded with her Aunt Eleanor, and her mother about Nicholls/Hosner names, but wanted money for some of her efforts. Penny will look for this correspondence.
- Penny's mother had a notebook now with her father that had family information in it.
- Penny has some old papers from her parents after her mother died.

Family Page typed of the information received from Lawrence and Penny regarding other Hosner family persons, and combined with census information.

*Malcoun s moved to Duluth, GA in1996 .

 Vital records need more research for clarification of spelling NICHOLS/NICHOLLS Mich.
